Rocknoll Nursery, Morrow, Ohio
Formerly at Foster

We Are Moving

Yes, ROCKNOLL NURSERY, is moving from Foster, Ohio, to our new Nursery farm at Roachester, the picturesque old village, two miles northeast of Morrow, Ohio, (Our new Postoffice) on the Three C Highway (Ohio 3, U. S. 22) just 8 miles northeast of Foster and on the same highway.

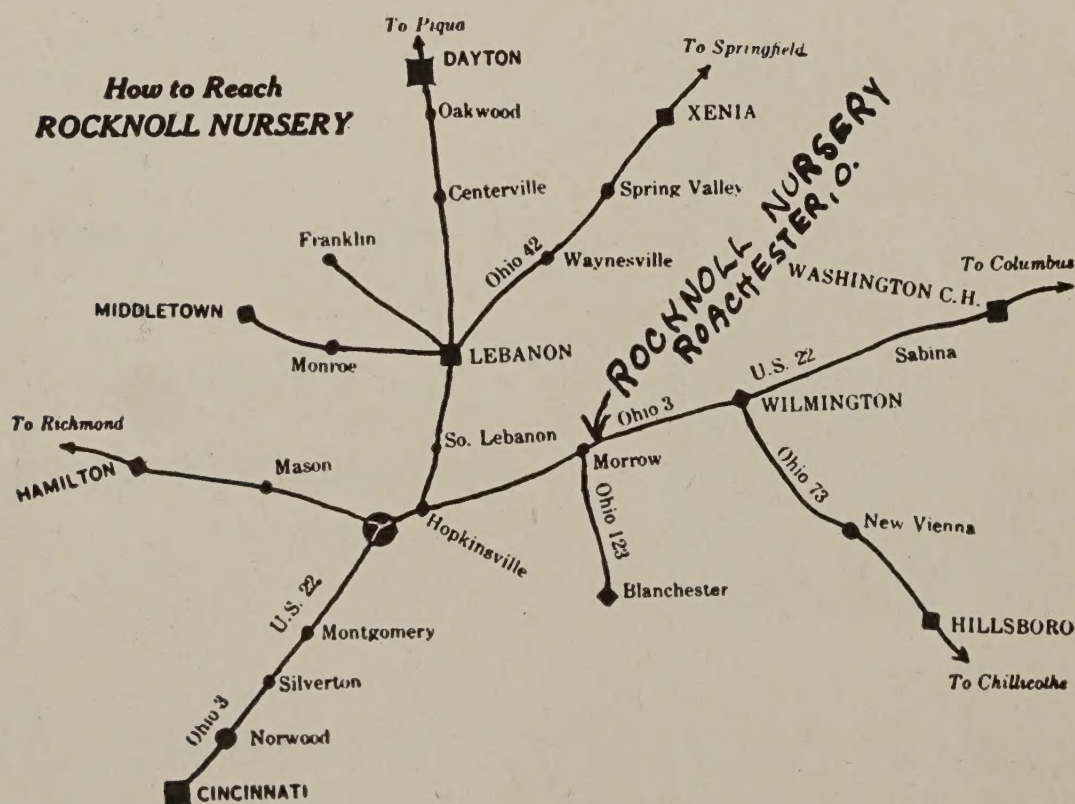

Our new location has 102 acres of fertile ground including a large wooded section ideal for growing bulbs, shade plants, ferns and wild flowers.

We are constructing a modern building to service our greenhouses, to house our packing and storage facilities, and furnish us a fine display room for seeds, bulbs, and roses (when the boys get back to grow them.)

This new Building will not be ready before Spring 1946 but we will endeavor to serve you at Roachester this fall the best we can with the facilities we have available. Drop in to see us and help us select some new Chrysanthemums from our field of seedlings that will bloom this fall.

To Reach Rocknoll By Mail, address us at Morrow, Ohio.

Telephone Morrow, Ohio 35R5

Hardy Chrysanthemums

Fortunately we were able to make a large planting of Hardy Chrysanthemums on our new farm. Several thousand nice field grown clumps of these will be ready to dig and ship about October 15th or earlier if you can come to the nursery for them.

Be sure to order some of these Hardy Mums this fall for large blooming clumps next year, or place your order now for spring delivery.

FIELD CLUMPS FOR FALL PLANTING

These are undivided plants just as they are dug from the field. Each clump will make from 5 to 12 flowering stems next season. Plant them out in the garden and cover them a bit when cold weather hits.

POT PLANTS FOR SPRING

For spring we recommend planting potted plants out of 2½ in. pots anytime up to July 1st. These will bloom abundantly the following fall.

The Rare Franklinia

(Franklinia Alatomaha—Gordonia Alatomaha)

This exquisite fall flowering tree was brought in 1777 from the banks of the Alatomaha River in Georgia to Bartram's garden at Philadelphia. John Bartram recognizing its extraordinary beauty and value, named it in honor of his life-long friend, Benjamin Franklin.

The original grove of Franklin trees was again visited in 1790, but from that day to this no one has seen these trees growing in the wild though many expeditions have searched the banks of the Alatomaha for it.

Each twig develops at its tip a cluster of buds of graduated size, like overgrown greenish pearls. Early in August the largest of these attain the size of marbles. Then the guard petal folds back, still retaining its firm spherical form. From its shelter emerge four other petals, satiny, snowy white, elaborately frilled and pleated. The snowy, frilly chalice, three inches in diameter, holds a sumptuous mass of orange gold stamens and breathes forth a delicate, balmy fragrance.

Each flower lasts two or three days and then drops cleanly. There is a constant succession of bloom till hard frost. We frequently get the unusual effect of a tree clad in crimson autumn foliage and abundantly starred with white flowers.

The Frankliniana begins blooming when not more than three or four feet high. Young trees under favorable conditions increase in height a foot or more each season. Specimens thirty feet high are known. It develops naturally with several trunks, but may easily be trained to a single trunk by removing the sprouts which start from the base. 2 foot high trees.
